Step 1	The teacher enters the classroom and says “good morning” to students. The teacher encourages students to say “good morning” in return.	5 minutes
Step 2	The teacher reviews the previous class and writes students’ responses on the board. S/he then tells students that they are going to play a game today which is called “Simon says” and whatever Simon says the students will have to do that. Next the teacher demonstrates the game by saying, “Simon says sit down”. The teacher sits down and encourages the students to sit down. Next the teacher says, “Simon says stand up”. The teacher stands up and encourages the students to stand up. Once the demonstration is done the teacher stops modelling and lets the students do the activity on their own.	5 minutes
Step 3	The teacher next gives the following instructions to students by saying, “Simon says sits down”, “Simon says stand up”, “Simon says get your English book out of your bag”, “Simon says open your book”, “Simon says close your book”, “Simon says raise your hand”, “Simon says put down your hand”. The teacher gives the instructions fast and changes the instructions from time to time to add some fun to the game. Once done the teacher selects 2/3 students to come forward and give the same instructions to the whole class and the students have to follow.	15 minutes

Step 4	Next the teacher distributes the attached handouts containing pictures that students have to match with the correct instructions from the given list of instructions. The teacher moves from person to person and monitors. The teacher will facilitate wherever needed.	10 minutes
Step 5	The teacher collects the handouts and tells the students that their works will be returned with feedback in the next class. The teacher then ends the class by saying “goodbye”.	5 minutes
